

Golf in the hills of Emilia Romagna

Experience the art and flavours of this hospitable region in the heart of Italy

Valid from April 1st, 2004 through November 30th, 2004

Emilia Romagna has more golf courses than almost any other region in Italy. On this journey along the old Roman road Via Emilia, there are 12 18-hole golf courses which are all situated in places that offer marvels of art, nature, history and food in hospital surroundings full of welcoming people. Apart from being full of important art cities, ancient villages, castles, and luxurious abodes, it is also known as the "land of motors" (Ferrari, Ducati, Lamborghini, Maserati, Bugatti), the "land of flavours" (Parmigiano Reggiano - parmesan cheese, Prosciutto di Parma - ham from Parma, Aceto Balsamico Tradizionale di Modena - traditional balsamic vinegar from Modena), the "land of artists" both historical and contemporary (musicians including Verdi, Toscanini, Pavarotti, Muti, Abbado; film greats including Fellini, Antognoni, Bertolucci; artists including Morandi and Guido Reni in addition to the writer Umberto Eco). Emilia Romagna is a region where there are many thermal spas ready to offer their visitors a wonderful combination of physical and mental well being, and are a perfect way to regain energy and feel fit.
