

Golf from the Hills to the Sea in Emilia Romagna

Art and Flavours in a friendly region in the heart of Italy

Valid from April 1st, 2004 through November 30th, 2004

Emilia Romagna has more golf courses than almost any other region in Italy. During this week along the coast of the Romagnola Riviera, you will have the opportunity to play on five of the best 18-hole courses in the region. Emilia Romagna is situated in an area full of art, nature and history famous for its cuisine, and inhabited by naturally generous and hospitable people.

The coast is characterized by a large sandy beach that runs along the Adriatic Sea. Here it is very calm and safe and this area offers numerous -"tailored"- holidays for families, sport lovers, spa lovers and late-night travellers.

In addition to being filled with great treasures of art (mosaics, Dante's tomb, the Malatestiana rock), this territory is also known as the "land of motors" (the race tracks in Imola and Misano, motorcycle champions such as Valentino Rossi and Loris Capirossi), the "land of flavours" (piadina, home-made pasta, anchovies and grilled meat, wines such as Sangiovese, Albana e Trebbiano) and the "land of artists" (Fellini in film, Tonino Guerra in literature). Emilia Romagna represents the art of living and hospitality in the heart of Italy!
